

TOOL DEVELOPER INTERN

Get ready

- to make your contribution in automotive software tool development
- to get involved in real projects
- to have a unique topic for your BSc/MSc thesis
- to receive support from professionals to build up real experience

What makes you a perfect candidate

- Active university studies in engineering or informatics
- Have some experience in (full-stack) web development
- Proactive mindset
- Good communication skills
- Structured working method and analytical thinking
- English language skills

What is not expected but makes you outstanding

- Programming skills (JavaScript, Python or Java, HTML)
- Experience in development of reactive web applications and frameworks (e.g. Vue.js, React.js, etc.)
- Experience in backend development
- Experience with Java-based frameworks (like Springboot)
- Experience with databases (No SQL or SQL based)

Why you will like to work with us

- You can gain real professional experience and make your contribution in live developments
- Exciting topic for your BSc/MSc thesis
- State-of-the-art development tools
- Learn state of the art technologies
- Spacious brand-new office in the city center
- Good access to public transport
- Room for creativity
- Competitive salary